BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH IN THE CITY OF ✧NEW YORK✧

The Third Sunday after Pentecost
Pride Sunday

Holy Eucharist at 9 am

June 26, 2022

325 PARK AVENUE AT 51ST STREET
NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10022

We invite you to make this place yours.

Here is a place that is ancient and new, a faith that we hold going back to Jesus, back to his spiritual ancestors, back to those who walked the earth and found holy ground. And what we do is often based on really ancient patterns—worship and music; loving service to the poor, the hurting, the lonely; working for justice and peace; lively, fearless education and formation of minds and souls. And that faith is also completely contemporary, engaged in the culture and the needs of the moment.

What we are for

The dignity and worth of every person. An open minded, passionate commitment to truth. The importance of everyone's own spiritual journey. God's friends wherever we find them. Seeking Christ in every person who comes through the door. The sacredness of life's rites of passage. The value of community. The hard work necessary to make sure that all are welcomed. Telling the truth about life's challenges. A "user-friendly" church experience. Children, youth and families.

What we are against

Claiming to have all the answers. Elitism and exclusivism, especially in church. Bigotry for any reason. Authoritarianism. Indifference to injustice and suffering. Certitude in the face of ambiguity and superficial answers to hard questions. Boring sermons, bad music and general cluelessness. (So, God help us, because we don't always avoid these!)

What we value

Community, open hearts, open minds, open arms. Faith. Fortitude. Staying current, but equally staying rooted in tradition. Reason and honesty. Civic responsibility as New Yorkers, Americans and global citizens. Debate that allows for mutual respect. Music and beauty for their own sake. Joy in God's creation. Anyone who makes an effort to get to know and follow Jesus.

Welcome!

Welcome to St. Bart's! Thanks for joining us for worship this morning.
We are glad that you are here.

Because of the continued spread of COVID-19, masks are required for all worshippers.
We also ask that, when possible, you allow space between your party and others.

We appreciate your patience and cooperation as we continue to prioritize the health and safety of our whole community.

Children's Activity Bags

Activity bags are available in the back of the church for children during the service. An usher will be glad to guide you.

St. Bart's Kids PRAYground

A carpeted play area with activities for children is provided in the south transept of the church, under the front-right balcony. In addition, rocking chairs are available for pregnant women and parents of infants. We encourage you to take advantage of this space during the worship service.

Sacramental Participation

All children are welcome to participate in Holy Communion at the discretion of their parents/guardians. Those not receiving are invited forward to receive a blessing from a member of the clergy. Additionally, the baptism of infants and young children is customary in the Episcopal Church. Should you wish to explore Holy Baptism, please speak with a member of the clergy.

Connect with us at stbarts.org/kids.

Prelude Prelude in D Major, Daniel Ficarri (b. 1996)

Welcome

The people stand as the hymn begins.

The Holy Gospel Luke 9:51-62

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

After the preacher introduces the sermon, the people sit.

The Sermon The Reverend Zack Nyein, Senior Associate Rector

An extended period of silence is kept.

Anthem St. Bart's Singers

He is the Way.
Follow Him through the Land of Unlikeness;
You will see rare beasts, and have unique adventures.

He is the Truth.
Seek Him in the Kingdom of Anxiety;
You will come to a great city that has expected your return for years.

He is the Life.
Love Him in the World of the Flesh;
And at your marriage all its occasions shall dance for joy.

Words: W. H. Auden (1907-1973).
Music: Hall, David Hurd (b. 1950).

Announcements

The Invitation to the Table

As music plays, the people gather in a circle at the edges of the platform. Please bring this leaflet with you.

The Prayers of the People

Words and Music: Bob Hurd (b. 1950).

Intercessor O God, hear us, as we offer our prayers for ourselves and for the whole world.

We pray for wisdom. Turn us away from superficiality, materialism, and greed. Teach us to be honest, generous, and humble. Help us to put our faith in heaven and not in fleeting things that fade away.

People O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for courage. Give your Church the boldness to fight for truth and justice in the face of opposition and obstruction. Empower us to be persistent in our prayers and in our deeds.

People O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for love. Fill us with compassion and respect for all. Widen our circles to include the marginalized and the rejected. Disturb our daily routines with the cry of those in need. Guide us as we care for our enemies, our neighbors, and ourselves.

People O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for healing. Confront the demons that run rampant in us and our in society. Release us from every ailment that causes pain. Surround with your healing presence all who suffer, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

People O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for peace. Quiet the distractions and worries that keep us from resting in you. Still the storms of violence that batter our nation and the nations of the earth. Bring to eternal peace all who have died, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

People O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray for grateful hearts. Bolster our praise for the good you make happen in our lives, and remind us continually to be thankful for your gifts, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

People O God, hear us; hear our prayer.

Presider God of freedom, you call us to follow you beyond what is comfortable, safe, and known. We give you thanks for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people who have challenged us to see the world anew. Grant us courage to leave behind the past, and guide us into a future in which love and acceptance reign supreme. In the name of Christ the Outsider, who had nowhere to lay his head.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider May God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is right to give you thanks and praise, O God, for you are a fool in the eyes of the world. You abandoned control, creating a universe, new and marvelous. You nurtured life: diverse, evolving, surprising and strange. You gave us different bodies and desires, different ways of thinking and speaking, and different ways of belonging and believing. And so, in awe of all that you have done and with every being in heaven and on earth, we lift our voices to proclaim your glory:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord; God of power and might. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - - - -
- ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

Music: Mark Miller (b. 1967).

Presider One came who upset the rules, who accepted the grace of the outsider, who looked for wisdom in those who did not count, who took his food in the company of the rejected. The tables of the moneychangers he threw over. The doors of liberation he threw open.

In Jesus, you defied the boundaries between sacred and secular and demonstrated respect and honor for all of creation. You confronted the powers that deny the goodness of others, challenged the status quo that seeks to keep things hidden, and commanded your children to love and to be loved.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ ate and drank to the end of slavery. He took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Presider Great is the mystery of faith:
People Christ became one of us;
Christ suffered for us;
Christ gives us the gift of life.

Presider Into our hands he delivers himself, Jesus, the Excluded One, the Sign of Hope for all. We celebrate in this meal his victory of life over death and love over hate.

May your Spirit take these earthly things and reveal in their brokenness the life-giving plenty that is the Body and Blood of Christ. May your Spirit descend upon us also, that we too may become Christ's Body and work for the healing of the world. Let us, we pray, be defined by what we are open to, not by what we fear; by the excess of our compassion, not by the walls along our borders.

We offer this prayer in the name of the God who includes everyone and excludes no one, the One who is in all and with all and for all.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

The presider breaks the bread. Silence is kept.

Presider We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.
People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The Invitation to Communion

Presider All you who hunger and thirst for a better life, for a deeper faith, for a better world, here is the bread of life: feed on it with gratitude; here is the cup of salvation drink from it and believe.

At the Communion

- All are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please follow the instructions of the ushers.
At this time, communion is offered to the people in one kind (bread) only. The Episcopal Church teaches that the Sacrament is fully present even when received in only one kind.
- The clergy sanitize their hands immediately before the distribution of communion, and bread that is distributed to the congregation is kept covered on a separate table during the Eucharistic Prayer.
- Please keep six feet of distance from one another while approaching the communion station.
After receiving communion from the priest, step aside, remove your mask and consume the bread.
Ensure that your mask is completely on before returning to your seat.
- If you require a gluten-free wafer, simply request one from the communion minister when the bread is offered to you.
- Those who do not wish to receive communion are still invited to receive a blessing.
Please cross your arms over your chest to indicate you would like a blessing.
- If you are unable to travel to a communion station, please alert an usher so that communion can be brought to you.

The Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray.

All Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on. Take us with you. Amen.
